In Memory of Rosemary Kidder

Good-bye, proud world! I'm going home;
Thou art not my friend, and I'm not thine.
Long through thy weary crowds I roam;
A river-ark on the ocean brine,
Long I've been tossed like the driven foam;
But now, proud world, I'm going home.

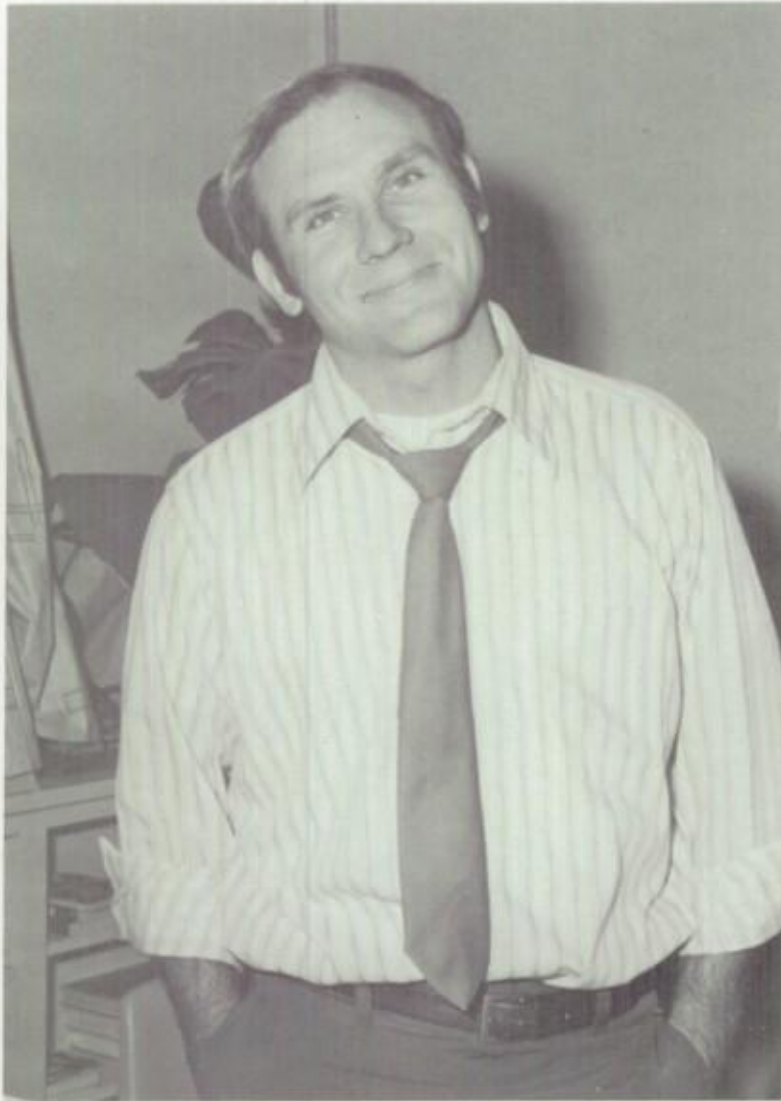

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Dedication

The Class of 1973 wishes to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Moyer. Four years ago the Class of 1973 and a new social studies teacher entered Sumner. In the past four years we have found Mr. Moyer to be a dedicated teacher and a friend to us all. We wish to extend our thanks to a great man.

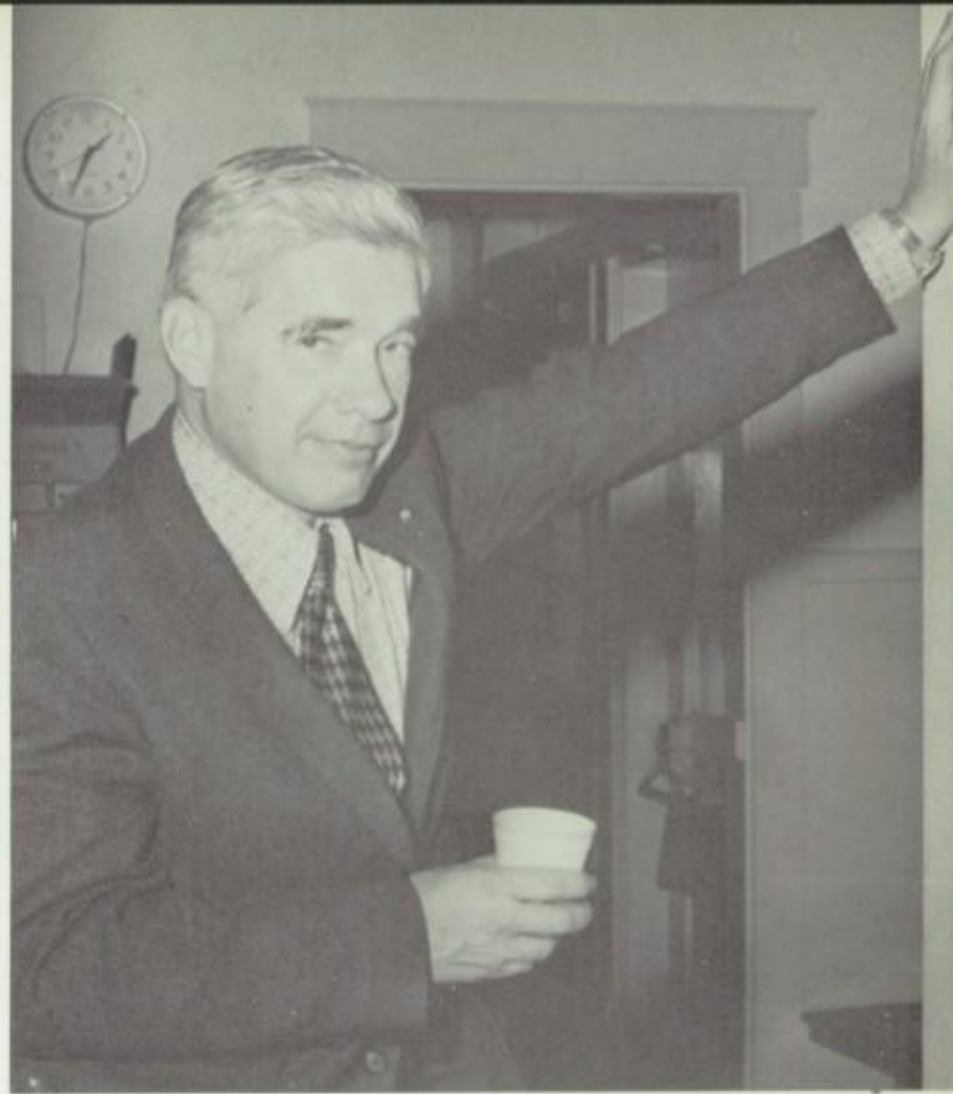

Appreciation

We, the Class of 1973, wish to extend our appreciation to Ralph Vose for his fine efforts which have made the band and chorus so successful and many of our extra-curricular activities so much more enjoyable.

[illegible]

With the addition of soccer to our athletic program which involved most of our returning cross country runners and their coach, we had to start from scratch this fall to form a new team under a new coach.

The team got off to a slow start in their ten meets. When it came time for the regionals, Coach Kane and his Tigers traveled to the University of Maine figuring that they had nothing to lose. They surprised themselves and everyone else when they finished first as regional champions. This was made possible with the help of fine efforts by Freshman runners, Sheldon Booze, Jeff Scott; Sophomore, Dale Church; and Juniors, Andy Pung and Rick Ulrich.

The team then traveled to Portland to compete in the State Championship and finished fifth. Sheldon Booze finished sixth in the meet and received a medal for his excellent effort.
